SAFE HARBOR STATEMENT UNDER THE PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT OF 1995

Certain statements in this news release that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements involve various important assumptions, risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those predicted by the forward-looking statements because of various factors and possible events, including, without limitation:

- the failure to achieve and maintain positive same-store sales;
- a decline in general economic conditions;
- competition in the restaurant and food products industries;
- the company's ability to expand its restaurant base;
- consumer acceptance of changes in menu, food products, prices, atmosphere and service procedures;
- the company's ability to hire and retain a sufficient number of qualified employees;
- market concentration;
- adverse weather conditions;
- government regulation;
- allegations related to food-related illnesses and health concerns regarding certain food products;
- margin sensitivity;
- consumer acceptance of the company's restaurant concepts and food products in new markets;
- fluctuations in quarterly operating results;
- the adequacy of insurance loss estimates and reserves; and
- protection of our trademarks and other intellectual property rights.

These risks are discussed more fully under the heading "Risk Factors" in Item 1A of the company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended April 28, 2006. It is impossible to predict or identify all such risk factors. Consequently, no one should consider any such list to be a complete set of all potential risks and uncertainties. There is also the risk that the company may incorrectly analyze these risks or that the strategies developed by the company to address them will be unsuccessful. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and the company undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect circumstances or events that occur after the date on which the statement is made to reflect unanticipated events. Any further disclosures in the company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission should also be consulted. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking statements attributable to the company or any person acting on behalf of the company are qualified by the cautionary statements in this section.
