We are very proud of the fact that Bob Evans has achieved seven consecutive quarters and two straight years of positive same-store sales, and we are excited to be heading into fiscal 2009 with strong positive momentum.

"In response to the challenging economic conditions that are pressuring sales throughout the casual dining segment, Mimi's Cafe has introduced eight new 'right-sized, right-priced' entrees," Davis said. The new entrees, which are currently available for lunch, include a blackened chicken Caesar wrap; a Parmesan-crusted chicken breast; meatloaf; pasta jambalaya; and a chicken, fruit and baby greens salad. Mimi's Cafe is testing a similar value concept for dinner and will roll out its new seasonal menu on May 21.
